PHASE '73
VOLUME 33

Mirth, Merriment, Miscellaneous . . . . p. 30

Hoops, Helmets, Hitters . . . . . p. 68

Clubs, Culture, Committees . . . . . p. 108

Guides, Gowns, Goodbyes . . . . . p. 124

"I believe in the sun even when it is not shining . . .

. . . I believe in love even when not feeling it —

NOTRE DAME

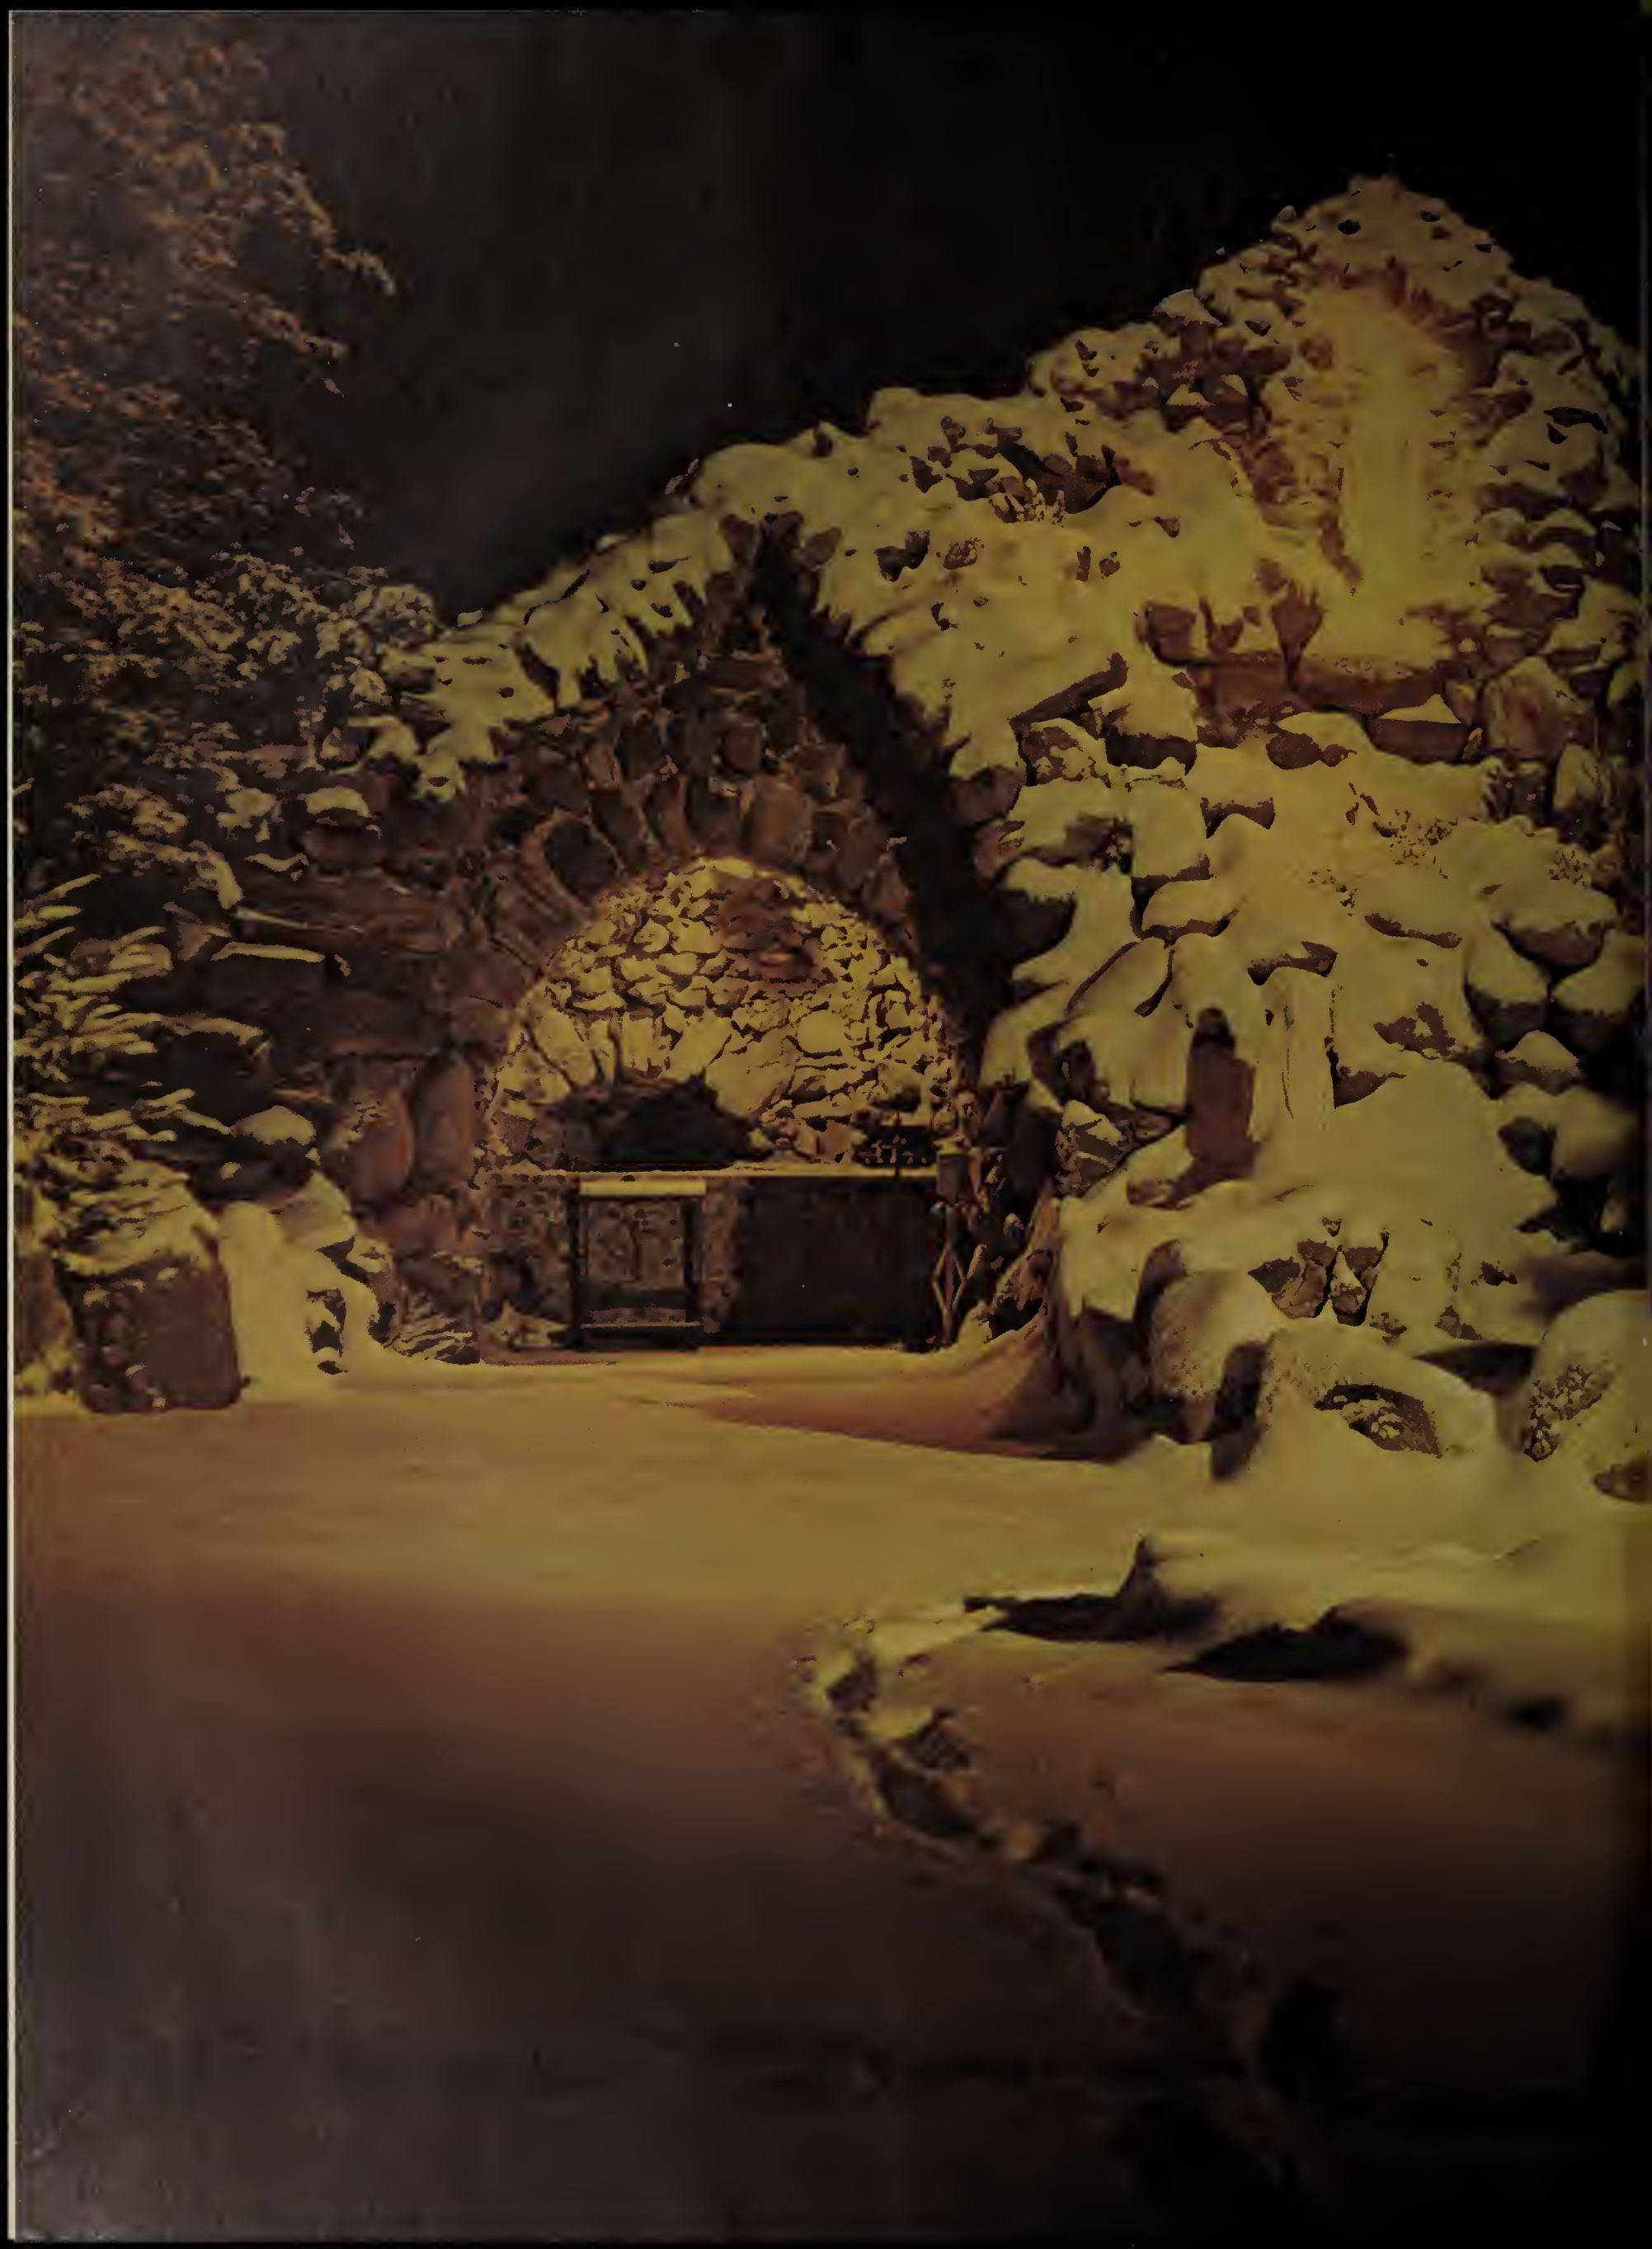
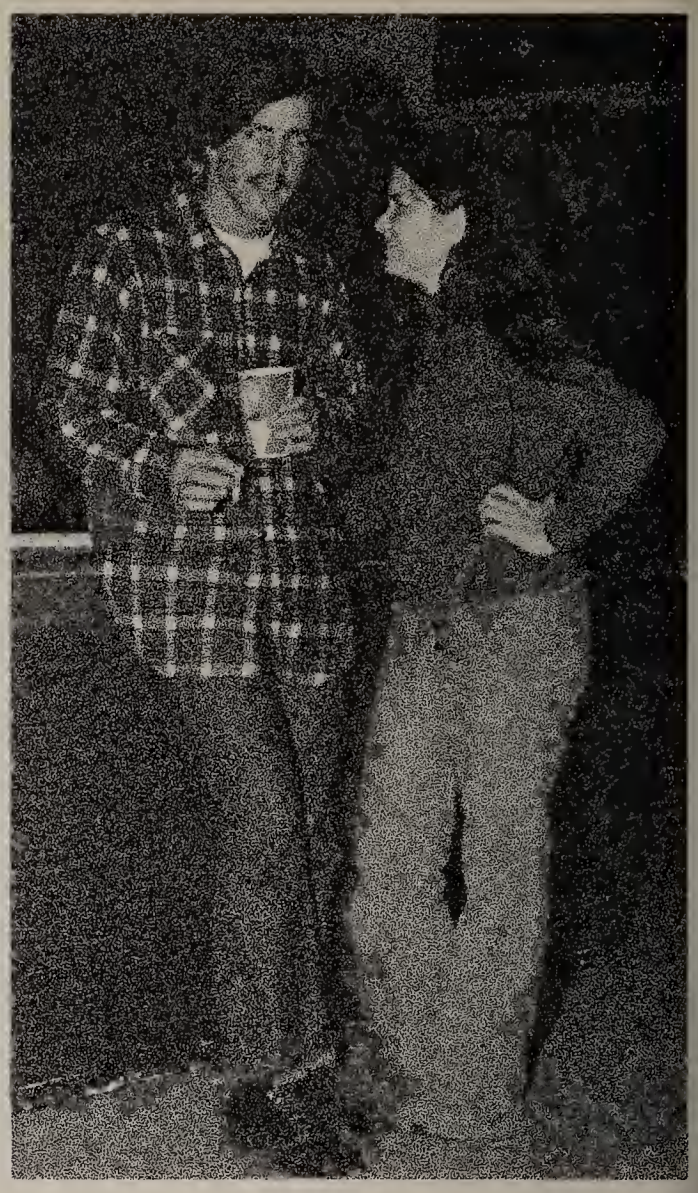
I believe in God even when He is silent."

Inscription in a Cologne cellar where Jews hid.



"Out of the past seven years I've never seen a more excited faculty and administration, more friendly students, or pleasant atmosphere, and so many wanting to be in school."

Fr. Charles Banet



"The time to be happy is now.
The place to be happy is here.
The way to be happy is to make other people happy."

Robert Ingersoll

"Dr. Robert Wood will speak on "The Meaning of Love" Monday, 7:15 p.m. . . . "

Daily Bulletin

"No love — no friendship can cross the path of our destiny without leaving some mark."

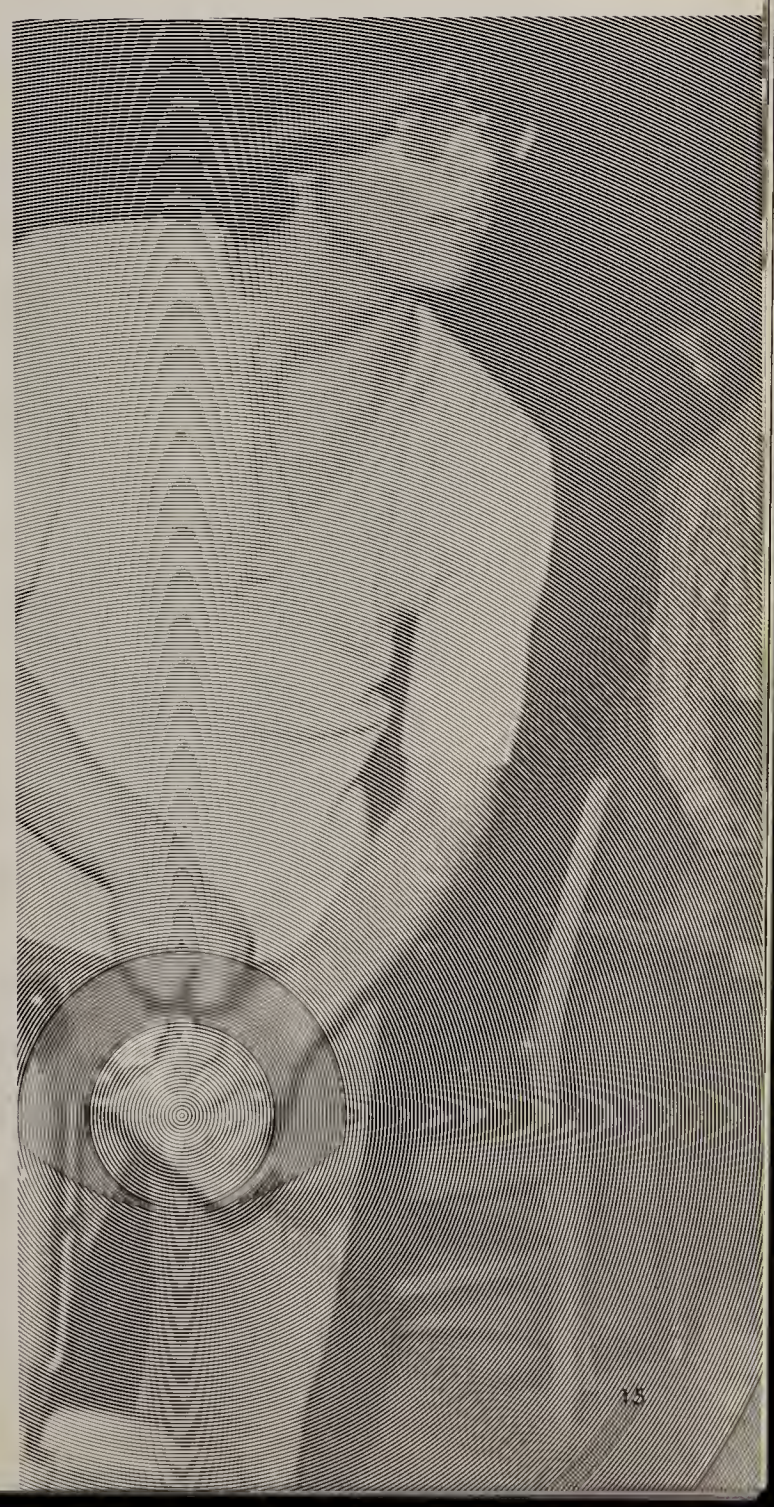
Francois Mauriac

"Dean Hughes Issues Stricter Drinking Policy for Campus"

Stuff

"Wine is constant proof that God loves us and loves to see us happy."

Ben Franklin



"There have been some unfavorable comments about the quality of social events on campus this semester. I am not in wholehearted agreement with these opinions . . . "

Bob Straz

". . . Man is nothing else but what he makes of himself."

Jean Paul Sartre

I guess that's why I'm here.
I want to make something of myself.

But sometimes that emptiness in the pit of my stomach makes me feel like I'm all alone — and that it's just not worth it somehow.

"The flaming destruction of Saint Joseph's Administration Building in the early hours of February 4, 1973, was a personal tragedy for the faculty and administrators who lost so much."

"But tragedies do tell us something about ourselves. We look deeper into the meaning of things — we re-evaluate just what is important . . .

It's gone, just so many charred bricks and boards. What's left? That same dedication to the ideals of mankind. That same desire to educate. That same need to fulfill a mission . . . "

Then, just like that, everything changes!

Everywhere there seems to be life and laughter,

something new learned, something special shared,

it's the times I feel I've found the way that make me know

I'm glad I'm here.

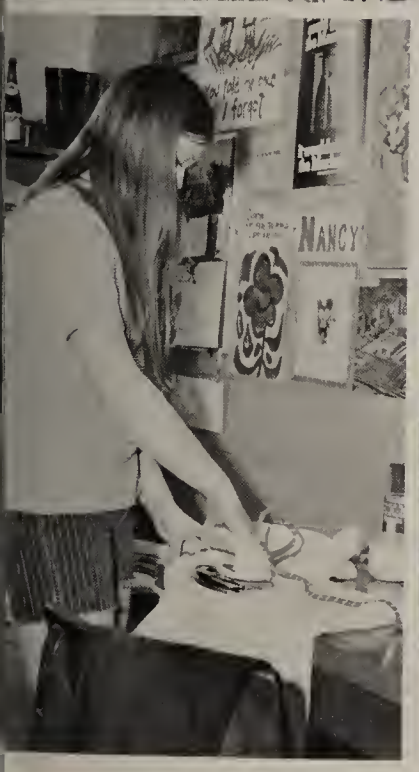
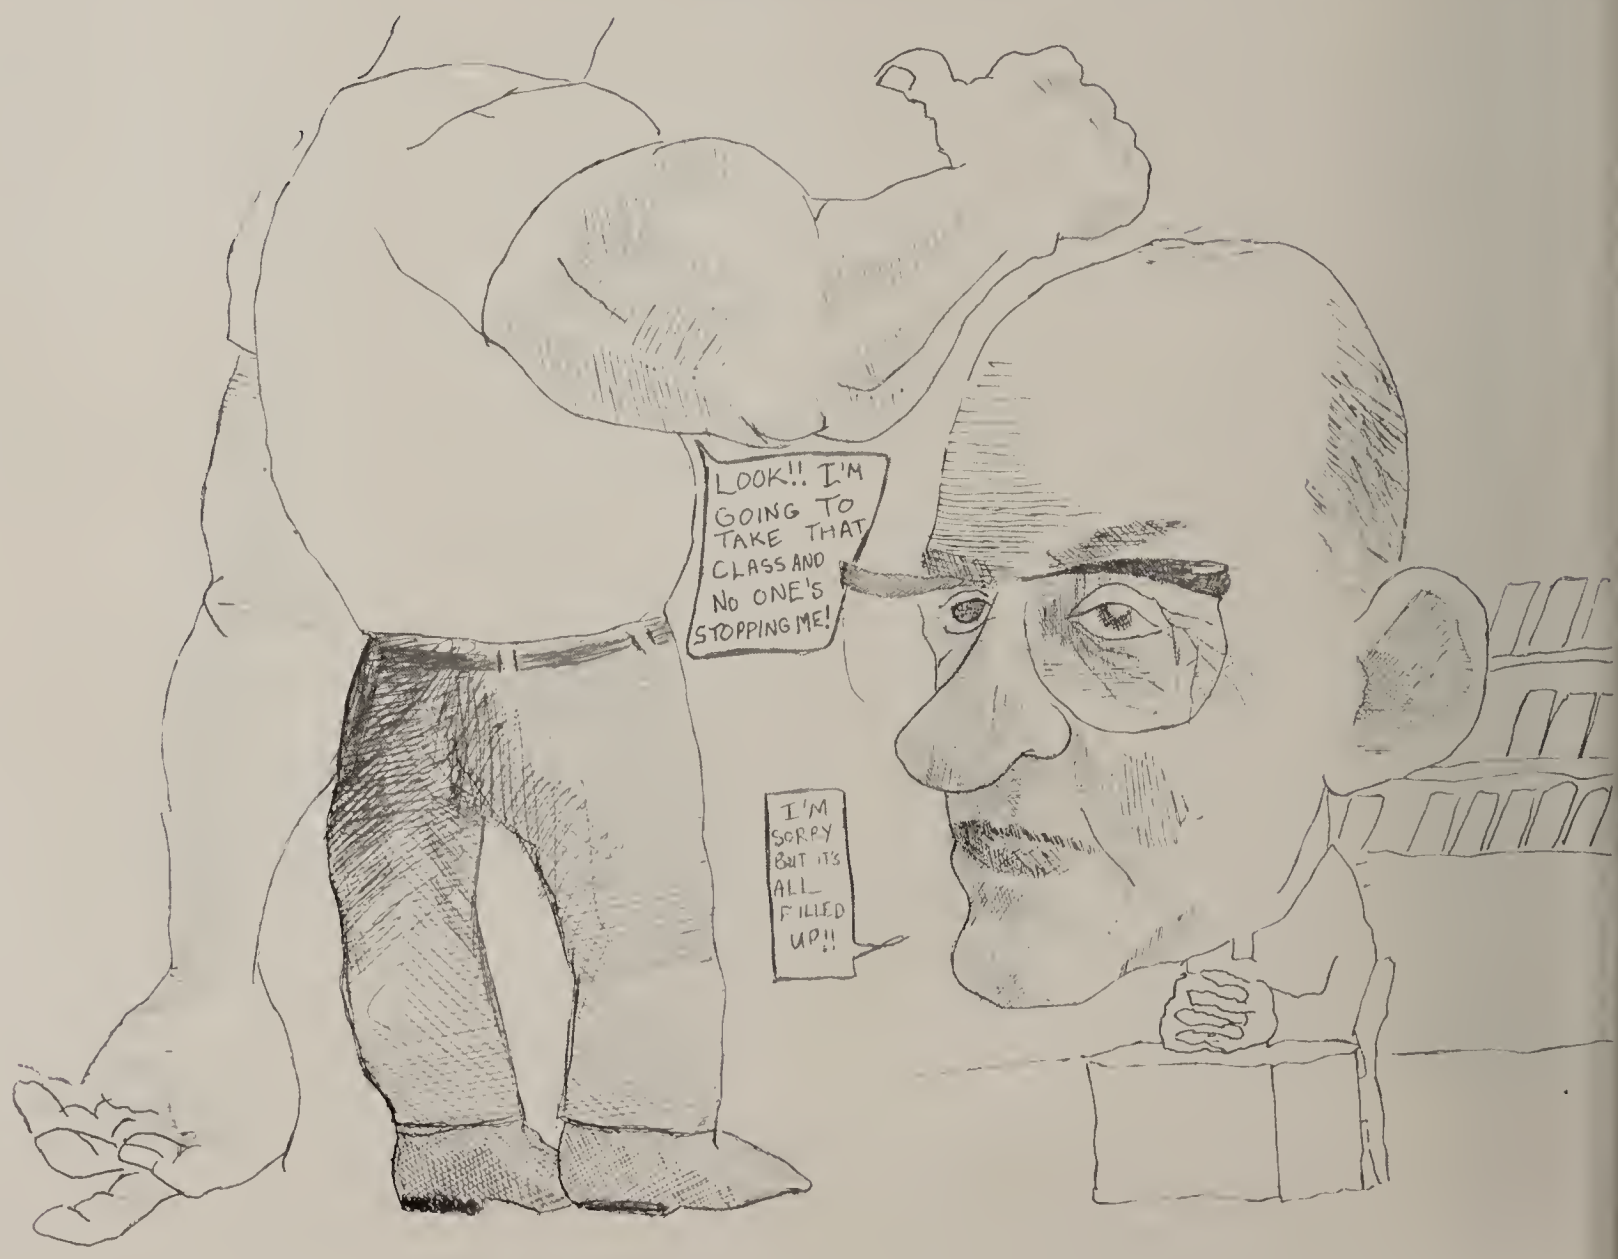
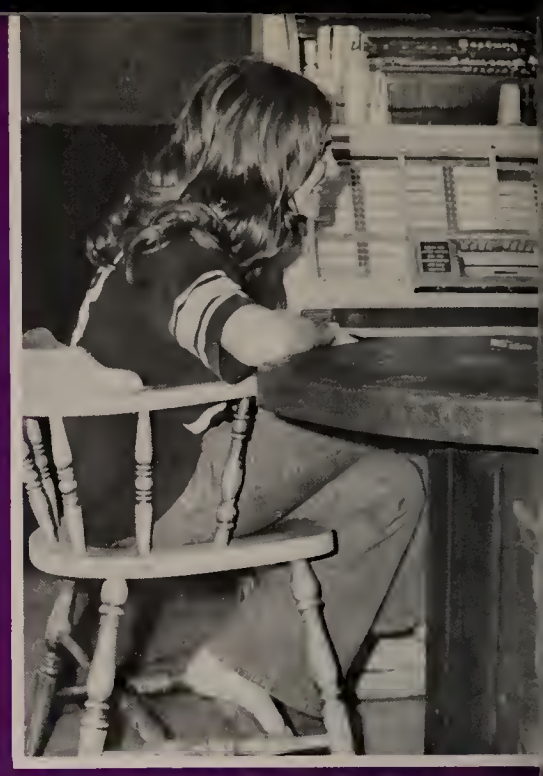
MIRTH, MERRIMENT, MISCELLANEOUS ...



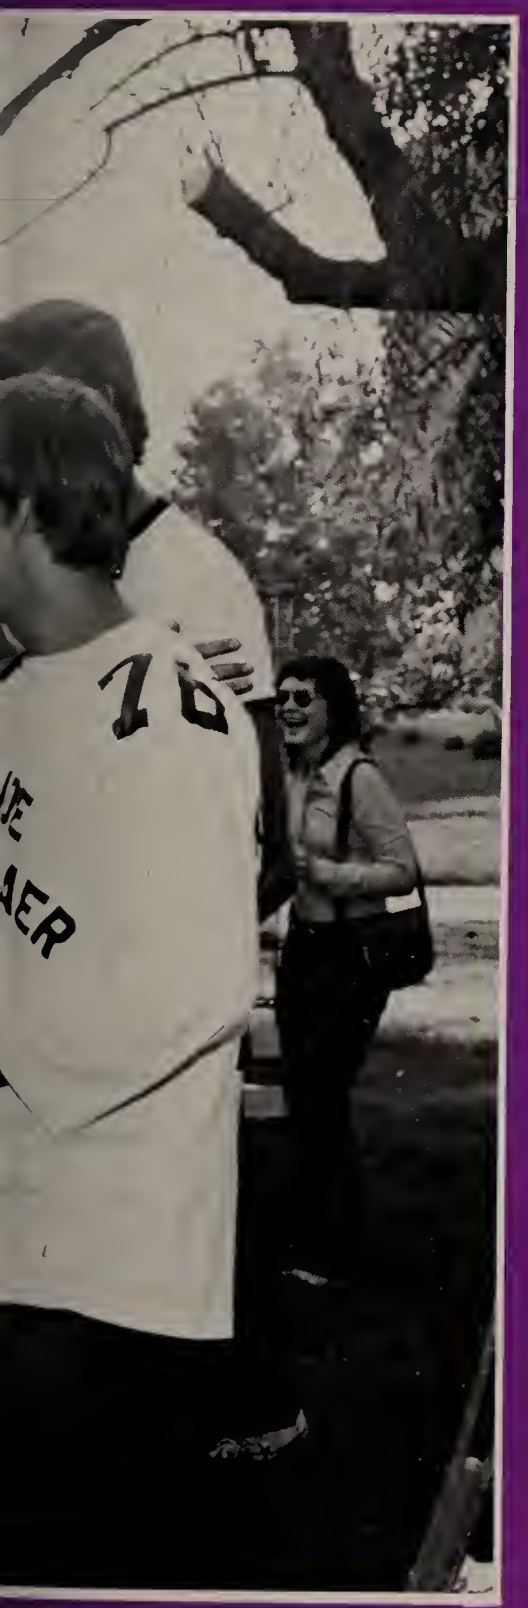
Some of us were new here.
The endless lines, the mounds of forms, the buildings that seemed huge and strange made us take a deeper breath and say . . .



"This is it!"



The ''say cheeses'' couldn't last forever and then we were on our own. But we weren't strangers long; the buildings became less awesome, the schedules less complicated, the people less strange — and I began to fit in.



and before I knew it,

it was Homecoming '72

the chill of the night air the warmth of friends around the bonfire . . .

the sounds, the sights, the joy of people, people, people. People coming together to celebrate . . . to celebrate what had been, what is now.

I CANT BELIEVE I ATE

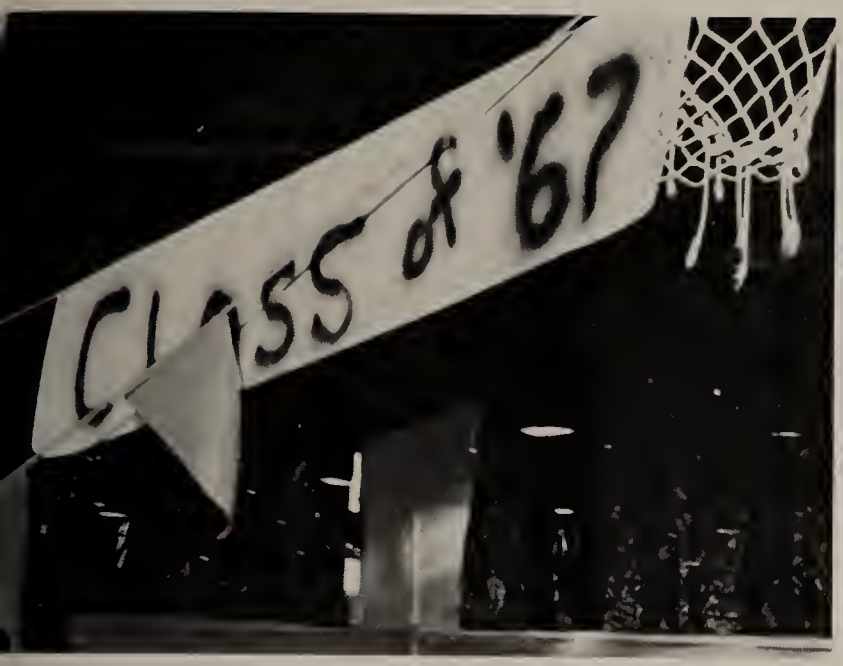
The celebrating will end, but the memories will not.



There will be another day for celebrating them.

. . . and I know what I will remember when someone says "St. Joe's."

Strategically sprinkled through all the books and learning were the fun times —

And that is the college education I will look back on — No matter how small compared to everyone else, I added a bit of me-ness to the place.

And in that sense, we are all winners.

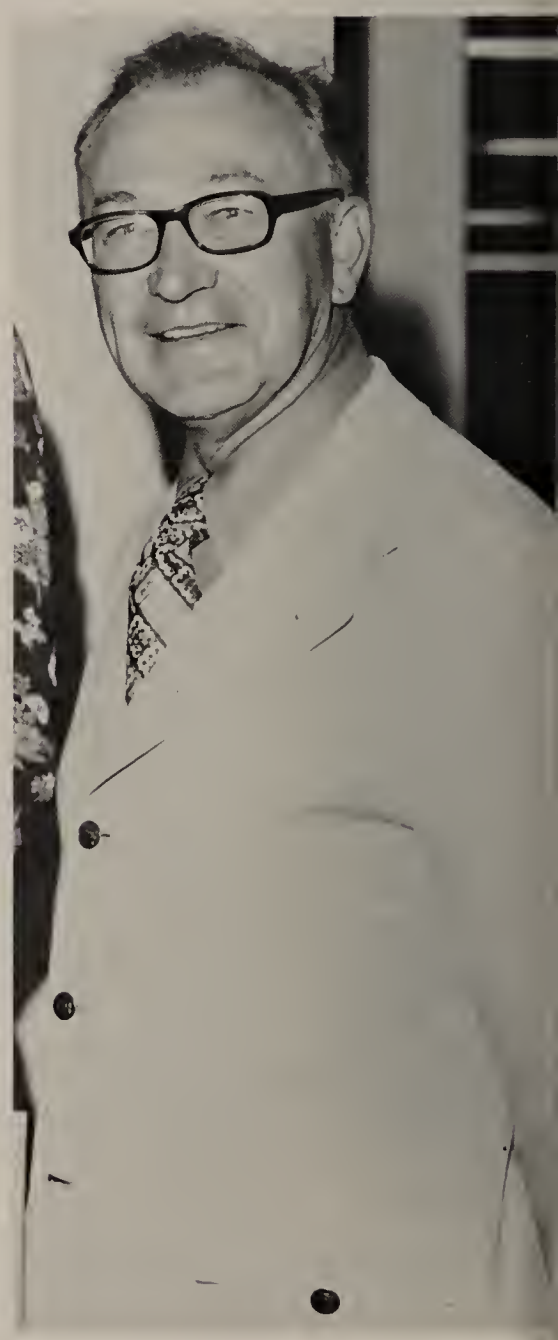
Fr. Gerlach: What is history but always a personal discovery?
Fr. Ranly: Life itself is the Mass.
Fr. L. Heiman and Bro. Hugh: Learning in music is an exhilarating experience.

Left, clockwise.
Bro. Joseph Mary, Fr. McCarthy and Fr. Staudt: If we do not respect ourselves, then who will respect us?
Fr. Reale: What is man without direction?
The secretaries of the administration, Computer Center and Alumni Office.



Above, clockwise:
Dr. Egan: Don't be afraid to applaud.
Fr. Meiring: Always here, always ready.
Mr. Scharf: Athletics is educational and entertaining.
Mr. Groppe: There are many ways to eat an apple.
Dr. Sleeman: Patience is virtue.
Mr. Jennings: This is a team effort.

Upper right: Mr. Crowley, Dr. Kenny and Mr. Mourani: If things would only grow the way they should.

Lower right: Mr. Hughes: You'll love square dancing.

Below: Mr. Brinley: Laughter is perhaps the ultimate philosophy.

Above: Bro. Marling: What is essential at times is invisible to the eye.

Right: Mr. Davis: Welcome to my world.

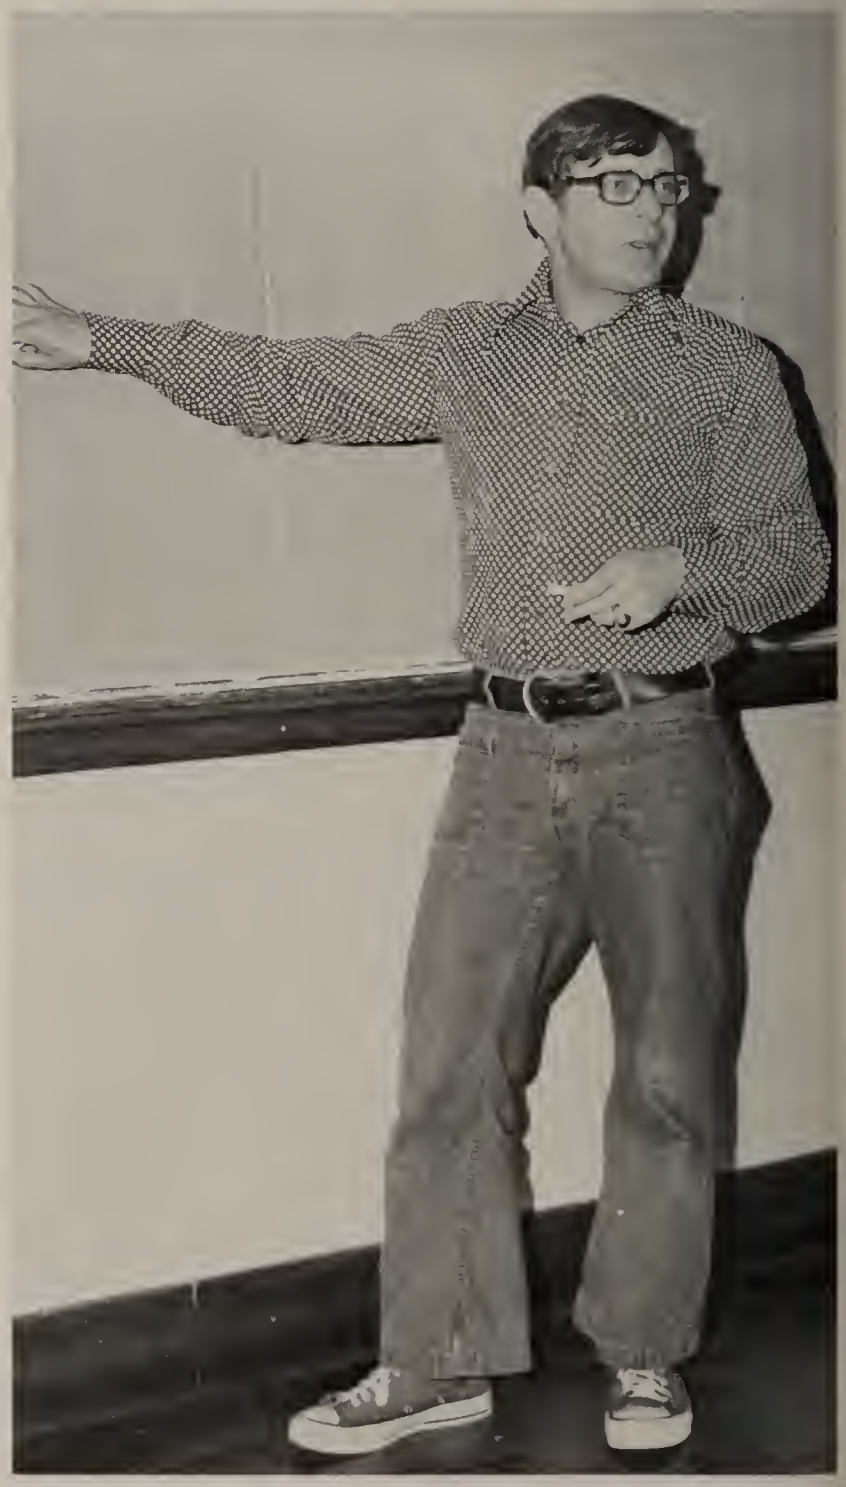
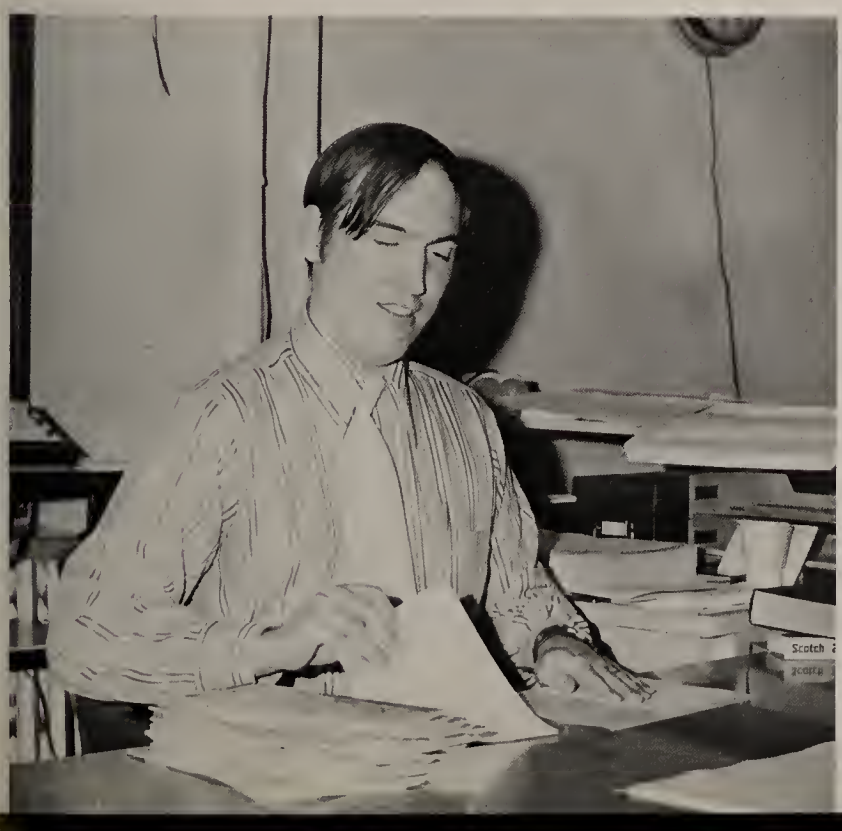
"Ma" Dunn: I don't believe I ate the whole thing.
Fr. Boton: An endless love affair with learning.
Fr. McCabe: Probing the future through numbers.
Mr. Ledvina: To sweat, and still run further.
Mr. Kelly and Mr. Womelsdorff: ZZZZZZZZZZ.

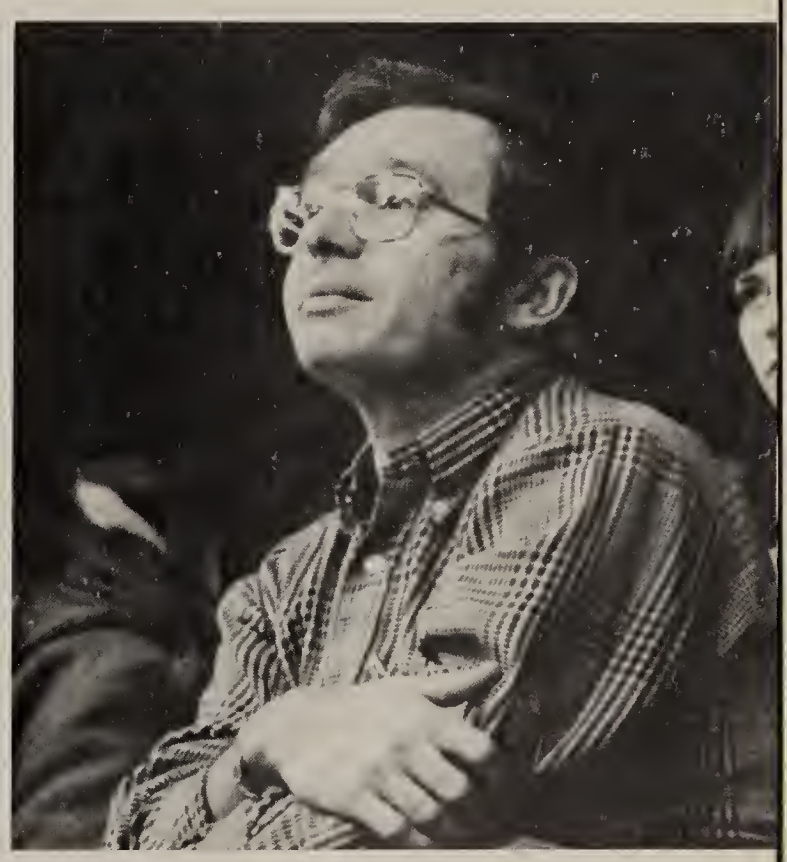


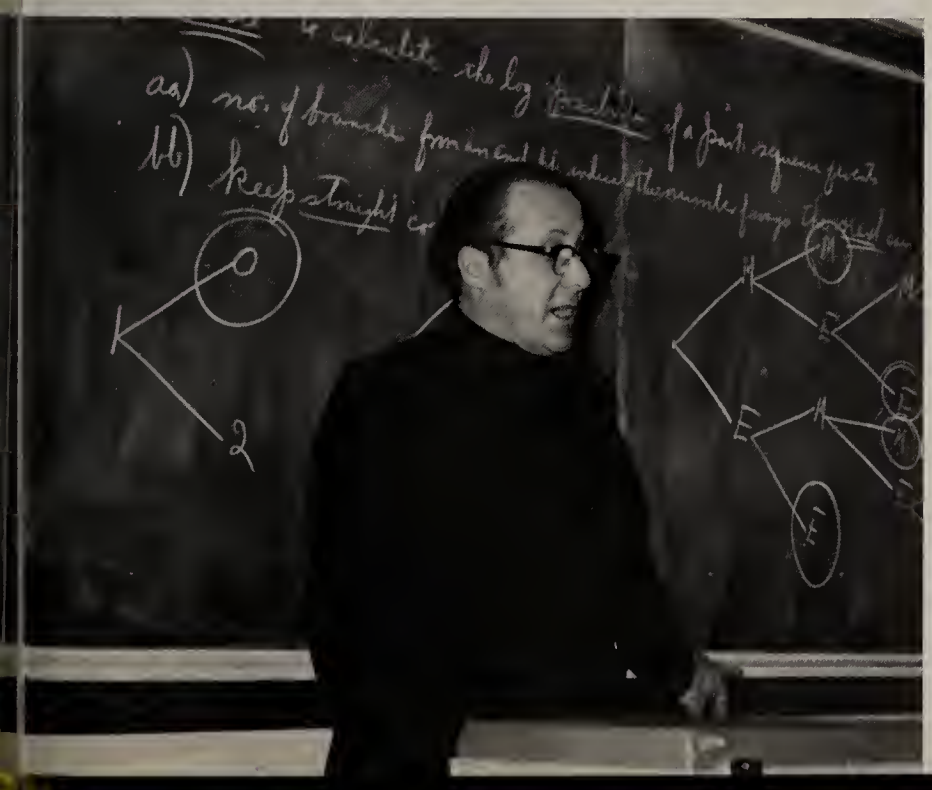
Upper left, clockwise:
Dr. Reichert: When people interact, they learn and grow.
Mr. Hahn and Mr. Broussard: Every day of teaching is a novelty.
Mr. Marini: Even teaching's faster in my Red Ball Jets.
Fr. Kostka: Need a ride to the game?

Upper left, clockwise:
Fr. Kramer: Thinking makes the heart beat faster.
Dr. Luzay: Education is where you find it.
Mr. Stafford: I normally don't smile.
Mr. Foote: Admissions means plenty of paperwork.
Mr. Hoover and Dr. Posey: A professor is one who opens new doors.



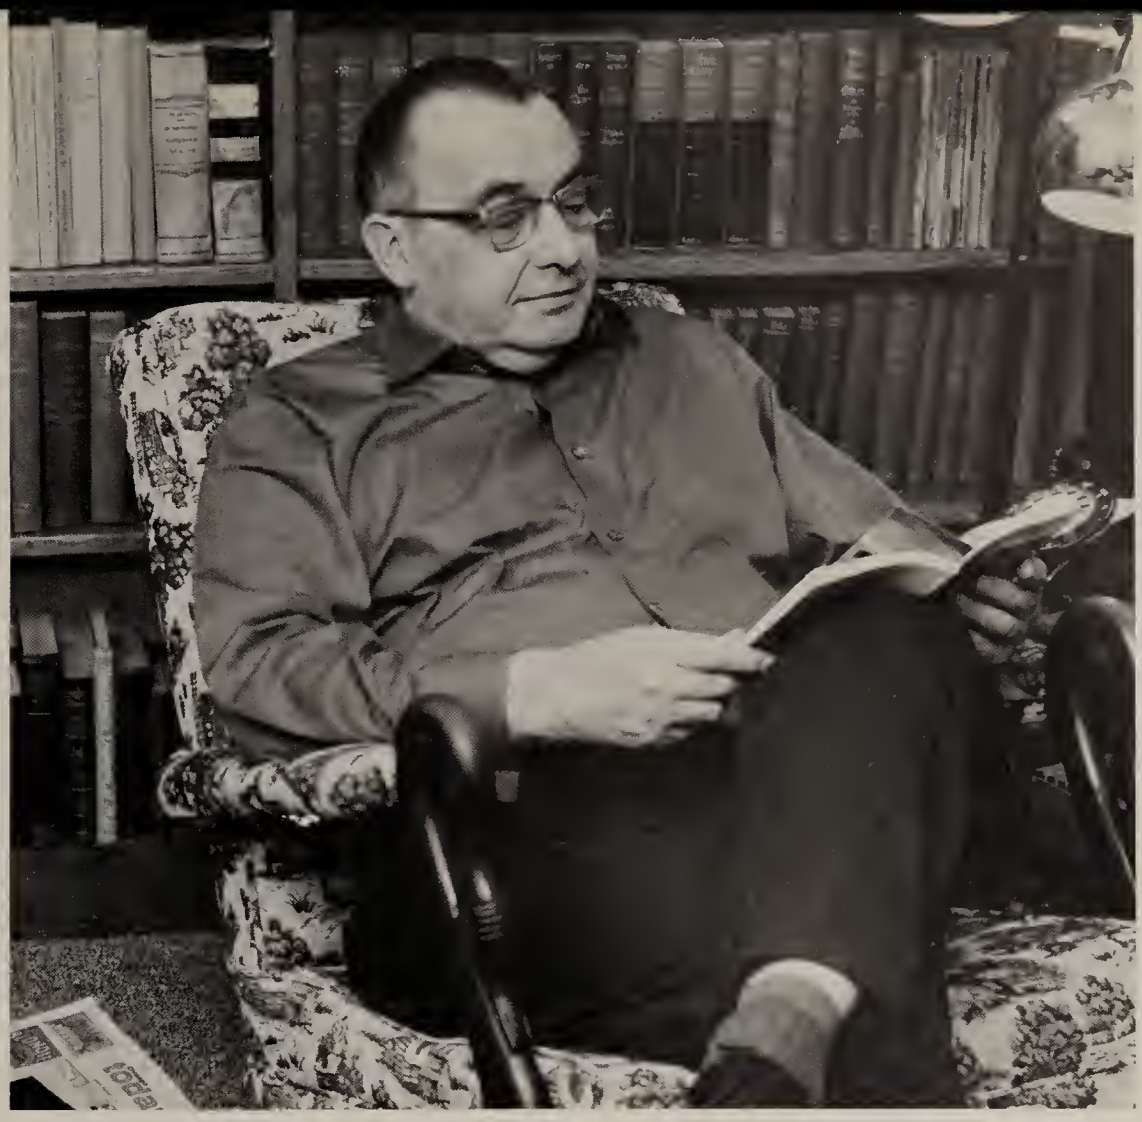
Right, clockwise:
Dr. Rodia: Smiling, even when it hurts.
Dr. Burkey: Speed kills.
Fr. Lang: To look back and remember.
Mrs. Egan: With a song in my heart.





Left, clockwise:
Fr. Ruschau: We can only teach as fast as you want to learn.
Dr. Cappuccilli: You have to really feel the part.
Fr. Dreiling, Mr. Verbrugge, Mr. Zawodny: Do not bend, fold, spindle or mutilate.
Fr. Balice: I am a Doctor!

Above, clockwise:
Fr. Rueve: The games people play.
Dr. Kreilkamp: A father to so many.
Dr. Bucholtz: That's a very interesting point.
Mr. Ellis: Where's Ralph?



Above, clockwise:
Fr. Heckman: Only a decade ago . . .
Fr. Gross: Colleges are built by Fellows who believe in them.
Fr. A. Heiman: Try, that's the most important thing.
Fr. Shea: Un-n-n-n-n-believable!

"He was in the world, and the world was made by Him:
yet the world
did not recognize Him."

IN MEMORIAM

Rick Berry '74
Bill Knight '73

A YEARBOOK LIVES FOREVER...

Phase '73 is a photojournalistic exercise in spontaneity, in priceless memories and in capturing people in the act of being people. Additionally, Phase '73 is a student yearbook in a more complete sense than ever before. This volume, funded in large part by student subscriptions, replaces the activity fee-sponsored book of many previous years.

In appreciation, the staff and editors owe gratitude to our Advisor, Mr. Charles Schuttrow, for his patience, guidance and sincere friendship; to his wife Delores and to Mrs. Betty Fenters for their contributions of hard work and time. We thank Root Photographers, especially photographer Dick Ware, for his many quality prints and his amiable concern with Phase '73. And finally, thanks is extended to Taylor Publishing Company and our agent, Jim Bell, who helped make this book and its production a meaningful, learning experience.

Here is a yearbook that will live forever, carrying the story of Saint Joseph's during 1972-73 into the late 1970's, the 1980's and even the 21st century. So when you subscribers review these pages in the months and years ahead, our work will not have been in vain if you can effectively relive this school year.

"Happiness isn't having what you want but wanting what you have." The memories this book unfolds are yours — you have them. The memories you have — may you always want them.

"One man's end is another man's start,
The beginning must lead to an end,
As it was created from that which went before.
The sunrise follows the sunset."
